

ROMANS Lesson 8

Scripture references for the BSF Romans study · NET Bible

FIRST DAY

Read the Lesson 7 Notes

SECOND DAY

Read Romans 5:1-2

Romans 5:1-2

^[1] Therefore, since we have been declared righteous by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ^[2] through whom we have also obtained access into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in the hope of God's glory. (NET)

QUESTION 3A

Romans 2:5

^[5] But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath for yourselves in the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment is revealed! (NET)

Romans 4:5-7

^[5] But to the one who does not work, but believes in the one who declares the ungodly righteous, his faith is credited as righteousness.

^[6] So even David himself speaks regarding the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

^[7] "Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; (NET)

QUESTION 5B

Psalms 17:15

^[15] As for me, because I am innocent I will see your face; when I awake you will reveal yourself to me. (NET)

Matthew 5:8

^[8] Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. (NET)

1 John 3:2

^[2] Dear friends, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that whenever it is revealed we will be like him because we will see him just as he is. (NET)

Revelation 22:3-4

^[3] And there will no longer be any curse, and the throne of God and the Lamb will be in the city. His servants will worship him, ^[4] and they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. (NET)

THIRD DAY

Read Romans 5:3-5

Romans 5:3-5

^[3] Not only this, but we also rejoice in sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, ^[4] and endurance, character, and character, hope. ^[5] And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. (NET)

QUESTION 6B

Romans 8:17

^[17] And if children, then heirs (namely, heirs of God and also fellow heirs with Christ)—if indeed we suffer with him so we may also be glorified with him. (NET)

Philippians 4:4-7

^[4] Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I say, rejoice! ^[5] Let everyone see your gentleness. The Lord is near!

^[6] Do not be anxious about anything. Instead, in every situation, through prayer and petition with thanksgiving, tell your requests to God. ^[7] And the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. (NET)

FOURTH DAY

Read Romans 5:6-8

Romans 5:6-8

^[6] For while we were still helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ^[7] (For rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person perhaps someone might possibly dare to die.) ^[8] But God demonstrates his own love for us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (NET)

QUESTION 9A

Ephesians 2:1-9

^[1] And although you were dead in your offenses and sins, ^[2] in which you formerly lived according to this world's present path, according to the ruler of the domain of the air, the ruler of the spirit that is now energizing the sons of disobedience, ^[3] among whom all of us also formerly lived out our lives in the cravings of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath even as the rest...

^[4] But God, being rich in mercy because of his great love with which he loved us, ^[5] even though we were dead in offenses, made us alive together with Christ —by grace you are saved!— ^[6] and he raised us up together with him and seated us together with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, ^[7] to demonstrate in the coming ages the surpassing wealth of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. ^[8] For by grace you are saved through faith, and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God; ^[9] it is not from works, so that no one can boast. (NET)

FIFTH DAY

Read Romans 5:9-11

Romans 5:9-11

^[9] Much more then, because we have now been declared righteous by his blood, we will be saved through him from God's wrath. ^[10] For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, since we have been reconciled, will we be saved by his life? ^[11] Not only this, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received this reconciliation. (NET)

QUESTION 12

Romans 4:25

^[25] He was given over because of our transgressions and was raised for the sake of our justification. (NET)

Romans 6:8-10

^[8] Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. ^[9] We know that since Christ has been raised from the dead, he is never going to die again; death no longer has mastery over him. ^[10] For the death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. (NET)

Romans 8:34

^[34] Who is the one who will condemn? Christ is the one who died (and more than that, he was raised), who is at the right hand of God, and who also is interceding for us. (NET)

Hebrews 7:24-25

^[24] but he holds his priesthood permanently since he lives forever. ^[25] So he is able to save completely those who come to God through him because he always lives to intercede for them. (NET)

SIXTH DAY

Review Romans 5:1-11

Romans 5:1-11

^[1] Therefore, since we have been declared righteous by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ^[2] through whom we have also obtained access into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in the hope of God's glory. ^[3] Not only this, but we also rejoice in sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, ^[4] and endurance, character, and character, hope. ^[5] And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

^[6] For while we were still helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ^[7] (For rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person perhaps someone might possibly dare to die.) ^[8] But God demonstrates his own love for us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. ^[9] Much more then, because we have now been declared righteous by his blood, we will be saved through him from God's wrath. ^[10] For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, since we have been reconciled, will we be saved by his life? ^[11] Not only this, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received this reconciliation.
