

ROMANS Lesson 15

Scripture references for the BSF Romans study · NET Bible

FIRST DAY

Read the Lesson 14 Notes

SECOND DAY

Read Romans 8:28

Romans 8:28

^[28] And we know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose, (NET)

THIRD DAY

Read Romans 8:29-30

Romans 8:29-30

^[29] because those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that his Son would be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. ^[30] And those he predestined, he also called; and those he called, he also justified; and those he justified, he also glorified. (NET)

QUESTION 7A

Romans 5:3-5

^[3] Not only this, but we also rejoice in sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, ^[4] and endurance, character, and character, hope. ^[5] And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. (NET)

Ephesians 4:22-24

^[22] You were taught with reference to your former way of life to lay aside the old man who is being corrupted in accordance with deceitful desires, ^[23]

to be renewed in the spirit of your mind, ^[24] and to put on the new man who has been created in God's image—in righteousness and holiness that comes from truth. (NET)

Philippians 2:13

^[13] for the one bringing forth in you both the desire and the effort—for the sake of his good pleasure—is God. (NET)

2 Timothy 3:12, 15-17

^[12] Now in fact all who want to live godly lives in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. ^[15] and how from infancy you have known the holy writings, which are able to give you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. ^[16] Every scripture is inspired by God and useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, ^[17] that the person dedicated to God may be capable and equipped for every good work. (NET)

Hebrews 2:18

^[18] For since he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted. (NET)

Hebrews 5:7-8

^[7] During his earthly life Christ offered both requests and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his devotion. ^[8] Although he was a son, he learned obedience through the things he suffered. (NET)

1 Peter 1:6-7

^[6] This brings you great joy, although you may have to suffer for a short time in various trials. ^[7] Such trials show the proven character of your faith, which is much more valuable than gold—gold that is tested by fire, even though it is passing away—and will bring praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. (NET)

FOURTH DAY

Read Romans 8:31-35

Romans 8:31-35

^[31] What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ^[32] Indeed, he who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, freely give us all things? ^[33] Who will bring any charge against God’s elect? It is God who justifies. ^[34] Who is the one who will condemn? Christ is the one who died (and more than that, he was raised), who is at the right hand of God, and who also is interceding for us. ^[35] Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will trouble, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? (NET)

QUESTION 9A

Romans 8:36-39

^[36] As it is written, “For your sake we encounter death all day long; we were considered as sheep to be slaughtered.” ^[37] No, in all these things we have complete victory through him who loved us! ^[38] For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor heavenly rulers, nor things that are present, nor things to come, nor powers, ^[39] nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in creation will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (NET)

FIFTH DAY

Read Romans 8:35-39

Romans 8:35-39

^[35] Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will trouble, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? ^[36] As it is written, “For your sake we encounter death all day long; we were considered as sheep to be slaughtered.” ^[37] No, in all these things we have complete victory through him who loved us! ^[38] For

I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor heavenly rulers, nor things that are present, nor things to come, nor powers, ^[39] nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in creation will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (NET)

QUESTION 11

John 16:33

^[33] I have told you these things so that in me you may have peace. In the world you have trouble and suffering, but take courage—I have conquered the world.” (NET)

SIXTH DAY

Review Romans 8:28-39

Romans 8:28-39

^[28] And we know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose, ^[29] because those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that his Son would be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. ^[30] And those he predestined, he also called; and those he called, he also justified; and those he justified, he also glorified.

^[31] What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ^[32] Indeed, he who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, freely give us all things? ^[33] Who will bring any charge against God’s elect? It is God who justifies. ^[34] Who is the one who will condemn? Christ is the one who died (and more than that, he was raised), who is at the right hand of God, and who also is interceding for us. ^[35] Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will trouble, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? ^[36] As it is written, “For your sake we encounter death all day long; we were considered as sheep to be slaughtered.” ^[37] No, in all these things we have complete victory through him who loved us!

^[38] For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor heavenly rulers, nor things that are present, nor things to come, nor powers, ^[39] nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in creation will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ

Jesus our Lord. (NET)
